Richard Lee & Ted Truong
iSynergy Webdesign

Richard and Ted,

Quite literally you have taken our vision and made it reality when it came to re-designing our website. Your careful and intuitive analysis of our ideas while incorporating our company culture really came through in your design; you really hit a home run with this.

Your professionalism, attention to detail, responsiveness and candid advice distinguishes you and your company as one of my most preferred vendors. I look forward to working more with you and your staff to help us strengthen our online brand and presence.

Simply put, I am proud to show off our website now!

Sincerely,

Kevin Soohoo
Director, Information Technology
